Inspiration: Handwoven textiles

The Aesthetic: Texture for texture's sake

Alongside colour, line and shape, texture is a pillar of design, transforming a flat canvas into a dimensional experience. Meso, Patty Madden's Type II wallcovering, celebrates texture for texture's sake.

Design and Dimension

An authentic emboss captures the depth and dimension of a handwoven textile. Imagine an artisan passing the shuttle back and forth through the shed between yarn threads, weaving warp and weft together.

Patty's mastery of gravure tooling creates surfaces that evoke emotion, suggest authentic materials and bring the simple sophistication of finely crafted wallcovering to every element of a space. Available in 19 elemental pigments, Meso offers the clarity of minimalism, maximized.
