The Inspiration: A Modern Interpretation of Vintage Capiz

The Aesthetic: Petros by Patty Madden captures the luminous beauty of capiz shell, a natural material cherished for its translucent, pearlescent glow. Associated with the glamour of mid-century interiors, shell found its way into decorative finishes and wallcoverings, bringing a subtle radiance to everyday spaces. Petros interprets that heritage in a thin vertical stripe of layered shifting tones with an embossed surface that exhibits delicate variations of shell. The result is a performance wallcovering with a vintage sensibility, bringing an atmospheric shimmer and enduring elegance to contemporary interiors.
